

Chris Hora's ashes will be buried on the pitch this Saturday 16th July at approximately 9pm. The ceremony will be very informal. Paul Schmidt and Julian Sanders will say a few words of prayer before the actual burial. Please note that the actual ashes will be poured into the ground as burying a casket would present a health and safety risk on the pitch. Kelly has asked for this to be a celebration and so wear what you like, bring a drink out to the pitch and we will raise a glass to Chris as the sun goes down. All are welcome and we will do our best to wait for teams playing away to get back, but please do make every effort to be prompt so that we still have some sunlight to perform the ceremony.
