OCC Presentation Evening 2006

Fri November 3rd saw the holding of the OCC annual Presentation Evening. The same day, the same week, the same format, the only difference being that we had changed venues to The Chelsfield Lakes Golf Club.

For the first time in living memory the event was a paid up sell out weeks in advance of the big night - it was even rumoured on the Maxwell grapevine that said tickets were changing hands on the black market for tens of pounds...who'd have thought it eh?!

Anyway, to cut a short story shorter, everyone arrived, drank a few drinks at the bar and then sat down for the meal accompanied by a few drinks. We then gave out the awards - taking time to toast the winners of course, and then finally with all that done, people danced the night away in between having a few more drinks! I think there is a theme contained somewhere within the evening's activities but I haven't got it yet....answers on a postcard please....

For those of you that weren't there, or for those of you that were but found yourselves drifting into the Paul Sheddon School of inebriation, or worse still the Jon Whiting School of serenading, the award winners on the evening were as follows:

Batsman of the year - Paul Sheddon
Bowler of the year - Neil Bradford
Top Pitch Player of the year - Sanjay Patel
Outstanding performance - Paul Sheddon [124 Sat 1xt xl v The Mote]
Outstanding Contribution - Geoff Atkinson [ECB Grant success]
Colt of the year - Sam Clarkson
Young player of the year - Ben Clarkson
OCC Hall of Fame - Keith Stockbridge
Cricket Teas of the year - Jim and Trudi

Well done to each and every one of you, the awards were thoroughly deserved.

The dinner also saw the OCC hold their annual 100 club top up draw. This year 9 prizes were given out totalling £850. Before I finish, I would like to say a few thank you's in regards to the evening, which overall I hope you agree was a huge success.

Firstly to Debbie and her staff at Chelsfield Lakes. They looked after us excellently and they certainly went beyond the call of duty in doing all they could to make sure the evening was an enjoyable for us as they could make it.

Secondly to Andy the DJ - top man, enough said.

Finally to all of you that came. It is not easy to get over a 100 people in the same place at the same time, but you managed it and you definitely made it the night that it was.

I look forward to seeing you all at next year's dinner.....book early to avoid disappointment.
