OCC Quiz Night – 25th April 2014

A good evening was had at the OCC Quiz on the 25th April. It started off with some light refreshment at the bar beforehand with everybody sizing up the competition and small talk.

The big question was whether Frank would crack under pressure and the earlier signs were that he was slipping behind slowly but surely... changing the answers of his team mates

Only to find out they were right and he was wrong. And there was Kelly and the only way to describe her team was entourage... who would have had no problems in finding an answer.

Bob Graham and his team were very steady with a lot of experienced heads. Ben had the best looking table but there were not too many questions on fashion, hair, beauty and makeup products otherwise they would have been in the running. Brian and his team were also very steady and coupled with some youngsters did well. Then there was Robbo and his merry men who were just merry. The Nomads Ladies team put up a good show but they were sat at the front next to the scorers..!! Then there was Jon Whiting and the Vets football team who were surprise package and run the eventual winners close. So that leaves the Maxwell Heavy Weights as the overall winners of the OCC Quiz for 2014 well done Shirley and team.

P.S. The winners of the Pablo know your host 6 fire questions was Kelly's Team, I believe once again that Franks team would have got all the answers right but he over ruled them yet again.

I would just like to say thanks for everybody who turned up and support the quiz without you we would not progress as a strong friendly family club and once a special thanks to the Nomads for providing some really telling questions.
